MAYO CLINIC

On behalf of course directors Samir Mardini, M.D., Steven L. Moran, M.D., Fu-Chen Wei, M.D. and Mayo Clinic School of Continuous Professional Development, I am inviting you to exhibit at the

Mayo Clinic/Chang Gung University Symposium in Reconstructive Surgery Course

The Symposium is June 1 - June 3, 2012 on the Mayo Clinic campus in Rochester, Minnesota.

The Symposium is an accredited program and offers AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. This is an outstanding event providing substantial value to our colleagues. The program covers a broad range of topics highlighting:

- Live Surgery with extensive coverage of reconstructive microsurgery and craniomaxillofacial surgery for the treatment of traumatic defects, oncological defects, and congenital deformities.
- Didactic lectures by international expert panelists.
- Grand round in a unique Microsurgical intensive care unit.

The program is specifically designed for established microsurgeons, fellows, and residents who have trained in plastic, orthopedic, or ENT surgery, as well as staff involved in the care and management of microsurgical reconstructive cases. We expect 150 – 200 participants to attend the Symposium.

Complete course details can be found on the course website:
http://www.mayo.edu/cme/surgical-specialties-2012r626

The fee to display at this course is $2,000.

Attached is Mayo Clinic's required Exhibitor Agreement and Exhibitor Registration Form. In order to be listed as an exhibitor at this course, this signed letter must be returned to us, along with your check, before May 1, 2012. Please return the Exhibitor Agreement along with payment (made payable to Mayo Clinic, Federal ID #41-6011702) before May 1, 2012 to Julie Reed, CME Specialist, Mayo School of Continuous Professional Development, Plummer Building 2-60, 200 1st Street SW, Rochester, MN 55905.

We look forward to your support. If you have any questions, please contact me by telephone at (507) 266-2821 or via e-mail, reed.julie1@mayo.edu.

Thank you for your consideration. We look forward to a favorable reply.

Sincerely,

Julie Reed
