ABSTRACTS

Overview: As part of the TransFuse: Transformative-Fusion of Innovative Patient Blood Management, oral and poster sessions for presentation of original research will be held. Any projects that pertain to the training and practice of Blood Management are also welcome. They may include guidelines, randomized trials, outcome studies, practice innovations, or descriptive analyses. Oral Presentations and posters will be chosen from all abstracts received by the March 1st submission deadline.

Abstract Eligibility: Original abstracts that either have or have not been presented at other meetings will be considered. Abstracts are eligible if they have been published; abstracts based upon full papers that have been published are also eligible.

Research Competition: Outstanding abstracts will be selected for either oral or poster presentations at the TransFuse: Transformative-Fusion of Innovative Patient Blood Management.

Number of Entries: A participant may be the primary author on no more than three abstracts; however, he or she may be a contributing author on any number of abstracts.

Deadline: Abstract submission deadline is April 1st.

Notification of Results: All primary authors will be notified by April 13th (or sooner if requested) if their submission has been selected for either oral or a poster session, and details regarding poster set-up will follow.

Printing of Abstracts: Abstracts chosen for presentation will be included in the course syllabus.

Inquiries: For further information, contact Tracy Parks, tracy@matrixmeetings.com
