

Cardiology and Cancer Care for the Primary Care Physician
October 11-13, 2007
UPDATED HOTEL INFORMATION

As of 8-1-2007, The Grove Park Inn is sold out of sleeping rooms on Friday, October 12 as is the entire group block of sleeping rooms. The hotel is working hard to accommodate as many attendees as possible at the group rate and placing guests on a waitlist. To check current availability and/or waitlist status, please email Carol Lindstrom [clindstrom@groveparkinn.com].

While we are very excited that so many people are planning to join us for this course, we apologize for any inconvenience this may have caused. Below is a list of hotels near The Grove Park Inn that can be used for alternative housing. At this time, availability at these hotels is not guaranteed but we wanted to provide a list to help in your search. We hope that you will still plan to join us for this exciting and innovative CME course. We look forward to seeing you in October!
