If you do not have a Social Security card or your card requires updating due to a name change, you must contact the Social Security Administration at 800-772-1213, at www.ssa.gov, or you may go to their place of business in person.

International residents and fellows should wait for instructions from the Legal Department Immigration Specialist Team before applying for a Social Security Card.

Once your new card is received, you must bring your card to the orientation. Your name in our Mayo personnel records will appear exactly as it appears on your Social Security card.
