Cardiology at Cancun 2005

Cardiology at Cancun 2005

February 14 – 18, 2005

Cancun, Mexico

Program Overview

The purpose of the meeting is to present state-of-the-art knowledge in cardiology. The scope of the program is broad and will cover a wide spectrum of topics ranging from basic heart disease to cardiac genetics in the adult.

Who Should Attend

• Cardiologists
• Cardiac Surgeons
• Cardiac Fellows
• Internists with special interest in clinical cardiology

Objectives

Upon completion of this program, attendees should be able to:

• recognize the latest diagnostic and management strategies for acute ischemic events and the latest information on newer plasminogen and thrombolytic agents
• appreciate the use of newer interventional devices, drugs, and surgical treatment in clinical practice
• describe the role of genetic factors in cardiovascular disease
• assess optimal time of surgical intervention in valvular heart disease
• recognize newer concepts in the management of arrhythmias, dilation, implantable defibrillators, and new pacemakers
• explain special issues regarding investigation and management of atrial fibrillation
• discuss the latest concepts of management of heart failure and cardiomyopathies

Program Over

The Marriot Cancun Cancun Resort, a beautiful beach back resort in Cancun, Mexico, is only 15 minutes from the Cancun International Airport and five minutes walk away both beach and pool sunning, scuba diving, consumption of beach service and all other activities. Breakfasts, morning breaks, and the course registration fee includes the continental breakfast. The registration fee will be confirmed by mail. At the time of this printing, the following travel requirements were accurate. Please check with your airline for up-to-date information.

Cardiology at Cancun

All attendees will be housed at the Marriott Cancun Cancun Resort, Blvd. Kukulcan, Retorno Chac L-41, Cancun Quintana Roo 77500, Mexico. Meeting room locations will be provided on site. Meeting site telephone: 515-250-8871

Registration Fee

Early registration saves $100 in each category. For the applications for doctors. Your registration fee will be confirmed by mail. The registration fee includes the continental breakfasts, morning breaks, and the course booklet. The deadline to register is January 21, 2005. After this date, you must register on site. If you are pre-paying for hotel, please apply. We encourage you to register as early as possible. We will be informed of your registration fee on site. Gratuities for bellmen and maids will be posted to individual accounts. Attendees are asked to guarantee two nights’ room rental plus tax with a major credit card or check. The hotel room block is scheduled to be held until Jan. 15, 2005, but may well be sold out before this date. Therefore, we urge you to register for the program and reserve your lodging as soon as possible. When you make your reservation, please be sure to ask about any additional resort taxes, early departure fees, or cancellation penalties.

Location

The Marriot Cancun Cancun Resort, a beautiful beach back resort in Cancun, Mexico, is only 15 minutes from the Cancun International Airport and five minutes walk away both beach and pool sunning, scuba diving, consumption of beach service and all other activities. Breakfasts, morning breaks, and the course registration fee includes the continental breakfast.

Cancun has fashionable shops and gourmet restaurants, Mexican and international cuisine in the lovely beachside setting.

Lodging Accommodations

To secure your room at the Marriott Cancun Cancun Resort, call the toll-free reservation line 800-222-6838, or call the hotel directly at 01-529-8871-2000 and state that you will be attending the ACCF meeting Cardiology at Cancun.

Single/Double $185

Cancellations

A full refund minus a $100 processing fee will be given for written cancellations received no later than four weeks before the first day of the program. No refund will be given for no-shows. In the unlikely event that the program is cancelled, the College will refund the registration fee in full, but is not responsible for any travel or hotel costs you may incur.

Credit

The American College of Cardiology Foundation (ACCF) is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians. The ACCF takes responsibility for the content, quality, and scientific integrity of this CME activity.

The ACCF designates this activity for a maximum of 28 category 1 credits toward the AMA Physician’s Recognition Award. Each physician should claim only those credits that he or she actually spent in the educational activity.

While offering CME credit hours noted above, the program is not intended to provide extensive training or certification in the field.

Please Note

Smoking is prohibited in all ACC meeting areas.

At the time of the printing, the following travel requirements are accurate. Please check with your airline for up-to-date information.

Attendees entering Mexico from the United States or Canada will need a valid passport. No visa is required. An original birth certificate with a photo ID (or a notarized copy of a birth certificate with a photo ID (driver’s license is also valid). Travelers will be asked to complete a tourist card (FMT form) at their point of entry. Those coming from other countries will need valid passports. Minors traveling with one parent will need a notarized letter of permission from the other parent.

Visa Requirements

• Internists with special interest in clinical cardiology
• Cardiovascular Fellows
• Cardiovascular Specialists
• Pulmonary and Critical Care Physicians

Please note that date of postmark does not indicate date of receipt.

Cancellations

A full refund minus a $100 processing fee will be given for written cancellations received no later than four weeks before the first day of the program. No refund will be given for no-shows. In the unlikely event that the program is cancelled, the College will refund the registration fee in full, but is not responsible for any travel or hotel costs you may incur.

Credit

The American College of Cardiology Foundation (ACCF) is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians. The ACCF takes responsibility for the content, quality, and scientific integrity of this CME activity.

The ACCF designates this activity for a maximum of 28 category 1 credits toward the AMA Physician’s Recognition Award. Each physician should claim only those credits that he or she actually spent in the educational activity. While offering CME credit hours noted above, the program is not intended to provide extensive training or certification in the field.

Please Note

Smoking is prohibited in all ACC meeting areas.

At the time of the printing, the following travel requirements are accurate. Please check with your airline for up-to-date information.

Attendees entering Mexico from the United States or Canada will need a valid passport. No visa is required. An original birth certificate with a photo ID (or a notarized copy of a birth certificate with a photo ID (driver’s license is also valid). Travelers will be asked to complete a tourist card (FMT form) at their point of entry. Those coming from other countries will need valid passports. Minors traveling with one parent will need a notarized letter of permission from the other parent.

Visa Requirements

• Internists with special interest in clinical cardiology
• Cardiovascular Fellows
• Cardiovascular Specialists
• Pulmonary and Critical Care Physicians

Please note that date of postmark does not indicate date of receipt.

Cancellations

A full refund minus a $100 processing fee will be given for written cancellations received no later than four weeks before the first day of the program. No refund will be given for no-shows. In the unlikely event that the program is cancelled, the College will refund the registration fee in full, but is not responsible for any travel or hotel costs you may incur.

Credit

The American College of Cardiology Foundation (ACCF) is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians. The ACCF takes responsibility for the content, quality, and scientific integrity of this CME activity.

The ACCF designates this activity for a maximum of 28 category 1 credits toward the AMA Physician’s Recognition Award. Each physician should claim only those credits that he or she actually spent in the educational activity. While offering CME credit hours noted above, the program is not intended to provide extensive training or certification in the field.

Please Note

Smoking is prohibited in all ACC meeting areas.

At the time of the printing, the following travel requirements are accurate. Please check with your airline for up-to-date information.

Attendees entering Mexico from the United States or Canada will need a valid passport. No visa is required. An original birth certificate with a photo ID (or a notarized copy of a birth certificate with a photo ID (driver’s license is also valid). Travelers will be asked to complete a tourist card (FMT form) at their point of entry. Those coming from other countries will need valid passports. Minors traveling with one parent will need a notarized letter of permission from the other parent.

Visa Requirements

• Internists with special interest in clinical cardiology
• Cardiovascular Fellows
• Cardiovascular Specialists
• Pulmonary and Critical Care Physicians

Please note that date of postmark does not indicate date of receipt.

Cancellations

A full refund minus a $100 processing fee will be given for written cancellations received no later than four weeks before the first day of the program. No refund will be given for no-shows. In the unlikely event that the program is cancelled, the College will refund the registration fee in full, but is not responsible for any travel or hotel costs you may incur.

Credit

The American College of Cardiology Foundation (ACCF) is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians. The ACCF takes responsibility for the content, quality, and scientific integrity of this CME activity.

The ACCF designates this activity for a maximum of 28 category 1 credits toward the AMA Physician’s Recognition Award. Each physician should claim only those credits that he or she actually spent in the educational activity. While offering CME credit hours noted above, the program is not intended to provide extensive training or certification in the field.

Please Note

Smoking is prohibited in all ACC meeting areas.
10th Annual Cardiology at Cancún 2005
February 14 – 18, 2005

Program Schedule

Viewexpress in this program are those of the individual speaker and do not necessarily reflect views of the ACC.

ACC Membership Number (if applicable):
First Name: Middle Initial: Last Name:
Cell: State: Zip:
Office Telephone: Office Fax:
City: State: Zip:
Address:
City: State: Zip:
Address:
ACC Membership Number (if applicable) ____________________________

Please use ONE of these methods to register:

-Mail and Fax
-Over the Phone
-On-line
-Register Now!