Program

Q: What program(s) are included in the measure below?
A: The institution has been approved to offer the following program:
    Cytotechnology: 32 credits

Costs

Q: How much will this program cost?
A: Tuition: $12,096
    Estimated Book and Supplies: $380

Costs are based on 2012-13 published rates

Financing

Q: What are my financing options to pay for this program?
A: In addition to any grants and scholarship aid for which they are eligible, graduates may use loans to finance their education. The median debt for program graduates, including all loans at this institution:

    Federal Loans: No data reported ~ less than ten students
    Private Educational Loans: No data reported ~ less than ten students

Success

Q: How long will it take me to complete this program?
A: The program is designed to take two semesters (12 months) to complete for students attending full time. Students are not allowed to enroll in this program at a less than full-time level.

Q: What are the chances of getting a job when I graduate?
A: The related job placement rate for students who completed this program in 2012 is 100% as reported to the Commission on Accreditation of Allied Health Education Programs.

Examples of Jobs Related to this Program

The link below provides information from the Department of Labor’s Occupational Information Network (O*NET ~ www.onetonline.org) about occupations that may be related to this program including the knowledge skills and education level that may be required:

Cytotechnologists http://www.onetonline.org/link/summary/29-2011.02

Prepared for non-degree programs in response to the US Department of Education Gainful Employment Program Regulations.