The 2002 “Practical Surgical Pathology” conference will address common but difficult diagnostic problems encountered by the pathologist in everyday practice. However, we realize “practical” is defined differently depending on one’s practice situation. Every effort will be made to present cases of common practical value.

This course is designed to simulate the daily activities of the practicing surgical pathologist, the conference will offer the opportunity to review each case history, view slides microscopically and formulate a diagnosis. The appropriate strategy will then be discussed. Audience participation is strongly encouraged.

The following areas have been selected for discussion:

- Bone
- Breast
- Endocrine
- Forensic/Autopsy
- Gastrointestinal
- Genitourinary
- Head and Neck
- Hematopathology
- Lung
- Neuropathology
- Ophthalmic Pathology
- Vascular Pathology
COURSE LEARNING OBJECTIVES

By the end of the conference, participants should be able to:

• Identify common diagnostic problems of pathologies selected for study.
• Classify each case according to pathology type.
• Enumerate the treatment options of each case diagnosis
• Integrate diagnostic, clinical, and pathological challenges in pathologist-clinician communication methods.

Attendance at this Mayo course does not indicate nor guarantee competence or proficiency in the performance of any procedures which may be discussed or taught in this course.
