COURSE DESCRIPTION

Mayo Clinic’s Annual Practice of Internal Medicine, celebrating its thirty-fifth consecutive year, is a postgraduate course designed to provide general internists, internist-subspecialists, family medicine physicians, and other primary care professionals with a state-of-the-art update in internal medicine. Lectures, panel presentations, and concurrent workshops are presented by specialists from the Mayo Clinic faculty. The topics represent some of the most common problems encountered in clinical practice including the management of a variety of medical issues seen in areas of gastroenterology, infectious diseases, general internal medicine, rheumatology, geriatrics, emergency medicine, pulmonary, endocrinology, cardiology, neurology and women’s health.

COURSE LEARNING OBJECTIVES

Upon conclusion of this program, participants should be able to:
• Cite the latest advances in internal medicine based on evidence.
• Manage patients effectively with common disorders in internal medicine and medical subspecialties.
• Explain the rationale of the U.S. Preventive Services Task Force (USPSTF) recommendation against prostate-specific antigen (PSA)-based screening for prostate cancer.

Attendance at this Mayo course does not indicate nor guarantee competence or proficiency in the performance of any procedures which may be discussed or taught in this course.

Distinguished Mayo Clinic faculty from multiple specialties including gastroenterology, cardiology, neurology, endocrinology, internal medicine, family practice and in-patient internal medicine will participate in this program.

REGISTRATION

To register online, visit http://www.mayo.edu/cme/POIM2014, or complete the attached registration form and return by mail or fax. The registration fee includes tuition, daily continental breakfasts, break refreshments, concurrent workshops, and Lunch with the Professor on Tuesday and Thursday.

The Lunch with the Professor sessions will be on a first come, first serve basis. Pre-registration is not required.

Mayo Clinic - like many responsible businesses - is attempting to “go green”. So instead of including a printed copy of the course syllabus for all attendees, we will be updating the course web site with the presentations prior to the course.

If you still wish to have a printed copy of the course syllabus, please indicate this on the registration form. An additional fee of $80 will be required for this format.

Although it is not Mayo School of Continuous Professional Development (CPD) policy to limit the number of registrants for a course, conference room facilities may necessitate closing of enrollment; therefore, early registration is advised. A letter of confirmation will be sent upon receipt of payment and completed registration form. Please present the confirmation letter when checking in at the meeting registration desk.
TRAVEL

Rochester, Minnesota, is a city that greets thousands of visitors from around the world each year. The city is serviced by an international airport with multiple flights daily via American or Delta Airlines. Access to and from the airport is provided by taxi, shuttle service, and rental car. The airport is located approximately 10 miles from the Mayo Clinic campus.

Note to Travelers: Several cities in the United States are named Rochester. When you make airline reservations and check your baggage, be sure that your destination is Rochester, Minnesota (RST) and that your baggage has been properly tagged.

Travel arrangements are the sole responsibility of the individual registrant.

LODGING ACCOMMODATIONS

Guest rooms have been reserved for attendees and their guests with special course rates at each of the following downtown Rochester hotels. In order to receive the special rate, reservations must be made before the room block is filled or before the cutoff date of April 13, 2014, whichever comes first. Reservations will be taken following this date based on space and rate availability. Please identify yourself as a participant of the Practice of Internal Medicine course when making your reservation.
