COURSE DESCRIPTION AND OBJECTIVES

Hospital Medicine is the fastest growing medical specialty in the United States. Currently, there are 7,000 to 8,000 Hospitalists in practice today, with anticipated need for 20,000 within ten years. This program will address many of the challenges experienced by hospital-based healthcare providers and provide a forum for the exchange of clinical and practice ideas to enhance the practice and delivery of healthcare. Topics that will be discussed include the hospitalized elderly, nutritional needs, safety, palliative care, medically complex surgical patients, continuity of care, anticoagulation in the inpatient setting, and inpatient ethics.

The program format will feature clinical updates, case presentations and panel discussions utilizing a multidisciplinary approach to caring for the whole patient and their family.

Upon completion of this course, participants should be able to:
- Describe challenges currently experienced by hospital-based healthcare providers.
