August 20–22, 2009 • Rochester, MN

Course Description

Mark your calendars and plan to join us at Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minnesota, for Rhinofest 2009. This continuing medical education program features an international faculty giving a broad perspective to this comprehensive program. Topics include endoscopic management of sinus and nasal disease, medical and surgical treatment of refractory chronic sinus disease, treatment of nasal tumors both benign and malignant, septorhinoplasty, cosmetic surgery of the nose and face, and the pathophysiology of chronic rhinosinusitis. In addition to the lectures and discussion, participants may either actively participate in the laboratory dissection or view expert dissections remotely.
