MENOPAUSAL MEDICINE

Care for the Mature Female

MEETING ANNOUNCEMENT!

March 26-28, 2009

Hyatt Regency Tamaya Resort & Spa
Santa Ana Pueblo, New Mexico

Course Description

This series of case-based lectures includes the latest knowledge about the unique aspects of medical care for the menopausal woman. The emphasis is on the integration of metabolic, hormonal, and neuropsychological aspects of aging. There will be opportunities for discussion with the audience about these issues and to address specific problems. The faculty includes thought leaders in the various fields of menopausal medicine.

Intended Audience

This course is intended for those who provide care to the menopausal woman. It will be of most interest to internists, family medicine physicians, and gynecologists but will appeal to advanced practice providers as well.

Location

Brilliant mountain sunsets and the majestic Rio Grande create an impressive backdrop for our course headquarters at the Hyatt Regency Tamaya, a golf and spa resort located on the lands of the Native American Pueblo of Santa Ana. Just 30 minutes north of Albuquerque International Airport and 40 minutes from Santa Fe, New Mexico, Hyatt Regency Tamaya is a Southwest playground surrounded by spectacular Sandia Mountain views.
