GUIDELINES FOR PROFESSIONAL VISITORS AND OTHER REPRESENTATIVES

Professional Visitor and Observer Confidentiality Agreement
Unless authorized by Mayo you are not to access, use or disclose confidential information regarding patients, employees and business operations. Professional Visitor and Observer Confidentiality Agreement (form MC2570-38) must be completed by anyone who has not completed the Mayo Clinic HIPAA training. The agreement must be completed and returned to your host prior to beginning any activity.

False Claims Act (Deficit Reduction Act)
Mayo Clinic devotes many resources to preventing and correcting billing errors to Medicare, Medicaid and other payers. Anyone who suspects that billing errors are occurring has an obligation to report these to management or the Integrity and Compliance Office. Individuals who report in good faith will be protected from retaliation.

Intellectual Property
Business partners, contractors, vendors and people who work for/on behalf of Mayo agree that any and all rights to any inventions, copyrightable materials, trade secrets or other intellectual property arising from its work with Mayo shall belong solely to Mayo. Your Mayo host may require you to execute an Intellectual Property Agreement (form MC5698-01) or a 3rd Party Services Agreement acknowledging this understanding.
Welcome to Mayo Clinic. While visiting and working on behalf of Mayo Clinic we ask you to uphold the same high standards of ethical behavior, integrity and professionalism that are required of Mayo Clinic employees.

The following information is provided to help explain Mayo Clinic’s standards and expectations.

CODE OF CONDUCT

All Mayo business partners, vendors and people who work on behalf of Mayo are expected to comply with the Code of Conduct and its underlying policies and procedures. Contact information is listed on the back.

There are nine areas of conduct covered in the Mayo Clinic Code of Conduct. For more information about each of these areas, contact the Mayo Clinic Integrity and Compliance Office.

1. Prevent unethical or unlawful behavior
2. Avoid situations in which one’s personal interests could conflict, or reasonably appear to conflict, with the interests of Mayo Clinic
3. Mayo Clinic assets are to be used solely for the benefit of Mayo Clinic
4. Mayo Clinic suppliers and contractors are prohibited from:
   • Offering any form of kickback or rebate to employees
   • Creating pressure for reciprocity
   • Offering personal gifts or entertainment
   • Bringing food or having food delivered to any Mayo location
5. Mayo Clinic books and records are to accurately reflect transactions
6. Mayo Clinic is prohibited from conducting political activities
7. Mayo Clinic is committed to providing a safe and healthy workplace for its employees and visitors
8. Mayo Clinic is committed to upholding federal and state laws prohibiting discrimination
9. Mayo Clinic patient records must remain confidential in accordance with Mayo policies, applicable laws and regulations. Mayo’s confidential and proprietary information and trade secrets must be safeguarded.

   A) Protected Health Information (PHI) is intended to be used in the course of treatment, for research, for education and for other institutional purposes in accordance with the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) regulations and any other regulatory or legal standards.

   B) Mayo Clinic’s confidential and proprietary information and trade secrets guidelines include:
   • Discuss proprietary information with others only on a need-to-know basis
   • Disclose proprietary information to persons outside of Mayo Clinic only in conjunction with the Legal Department
   • Be vigilant about inadvertently discussing confidential information or trade secrets
