Course Overview
This program is designed for orthopedic surgeons working in adult reconstruction of the lower extremity. Topics will include the latest advances in surgical management of arthritis, trauma, failed arthroplasty, reconstruction and common complications for the foot and ankle, knee, and hip.

Course Highlights
• Rapid-fire didactic program
• Surgical technique video sessions
• Stump the Expert: Case presentations
• Interactive audience response system

Mayo Clinic Course Director
David G. Lewallen, MD

Program Chairs
Norm S. Turner M.D., Foot and Ankle program
Harold B. Kitaoka M.D., Foot and Ankle program
Mark W. Pagnano M.D., Knee program
Mark J. Spangehl M.D., Hip program

Registration Open Soon!
www.mayo.edu/cme/orthopedic-surgery.html
Orthopedic Surgery: Lower Extremity Reconstruction

February 13–16, 2008
Westin LaPaloma Resort & Spa
Tucson, Arizona

Check course updates at
www.mayo.edu/cme/orthopedic-surgery.html

© 2007, Mayo Press • Printed in U.S.A.