This course is endorsed by the American Society for Gastrointestinal Endoscopy
Course description
This three day course features lectures and ‘meet-the-professor’ sessions with national and international experts, live endoscopies, and a hands-on workshop to practice skills designed to improve performance of advanced therapeutic endoscopic procedures such as advanced imaging methods, EMR, and double balloon enteroscopy. Attendees will be able to evaluate different approaches to detection and therapy of dysplasia in Barrett’s esophagus and ulcerative colitis, set up a program for quality improvement and monitoring, and describe future trends in endoscopic practice and technology. The American Society for Gastrointestinal Endoscopy (ASGE) has endorsed this course.

Course learning objectives
Upon conclusion of this program, participants should be able to:
• Select patients who will benefit from new options in esophageal imaging and ablation.
• Evaluate choices for small bowel endoscopy including capsules, smart pills and double balloon enteroscopy.
• Discuss ways to improve adenoma detection rate.
• Improve performance of advanced therapeutic endoscopic procedures such as EMR, EUS and confocal imaging.
• Establish programs for quality improvement and monitoring in endoscopy.

Attendance at this Mayo course does not indicate nor guarantee competence or proficiency in the performance of any procedures which may be discussed or taught in this course.

Intended audience
This course is designed for the GI endoscopist, GI Fellow, GI nurse and other GI clinicians wishing to update their skills on theory and practice of endoscopy in order to improve patient care.

Registration
To register online, visit http://www.mayo.edu/cme/endoscopy/index.html or complete the attached registration form and return by mail or fax. The registration fee includes tuition, comprehensive course syllabus, continental breakfasts, break refreshments, lunches and reception. Although it is not Mayo School of CPD policy to limit the number of registrants for a course, conference room facilities may necessitate closing of enrollment; therefore, early registration is advised. A letter of confirmation will be sent upon receipt of payment and completed registration form. Please present the confirmation letter when checking in at the meeting registration desk.

Cancellation policy
If you cancel your participation in this course, your registration fee, less a $75 administrative fee, will be refunded when written notification is received by Mayo School of CPD before September 24, 2009 (fax#: 904-953-2954). No refunds will be made on or after September 25. Canceled registrations are non-transferable.

Mayo School of CPD reserves the right to cancel or postpone any course due to unforeseen circumstances. In the unlikely event Mayo School of CPD must cancel or postpone this course, Mayo School of CPD will refund the registration fee but is not responsible for any related costs, charges, or expenses to participants, including fees assessed by airline/travel/lodging agencies.

Location/Lodging Accommodations
At 840 square miles Jacksonville, Florida is the largest city in the continental U.S. and boasts miles of sandy beaches, more than 100 golf courses and is home to THE PLAYERS Championship, world class tennis, fishing and boating, shopping and a vibrant nightlife. The Mayo Clinic campus is approximately 40 minutes south of Jacksonville International Airport (JAX) which is served by all major airlines.

Guest rooms are available for attendees and their guests at the Mayo Clinic corporate rate at the following Jacksonville hotels. In order to receive the special rate, you must identify yourself as traveling to Mayo Clinic. Please note that rates may change based on availability, and hotels often offer special seasonal rates advertised on their websites. Advanced booking is strongly recommended. Travel arrangements are the responsibility of the attendee.

Mayo School of CPD is not responsible for expenses incurred by an individual who is not confirmed and for whom space is not available at the meeting. Costs incurred by the registrant such as airline or hotel fees or penalties are the responsibility of the registrant.
