Mayo School of Continuing Medical Education

Clinical Reviews:
Summer Session 2006

Ashton B. Taylor Auditorium
Mayo Clinic
Scottsdale, Arizona

Saturday – July 1, 2006 and
Saturday – August 12, 2006

Register Today!

www.mayo.edu
COURSE HIGHLIGHTS: To review a wide range of topics pertinent to the daily office practice of primary care providers and to educate primary care physicians regarding the diagnosis, management and appropriate referral of complex medical conditions.

COURSE TOPICS

July 1, 2006
- Menstrual Migraines
- Preconception Care: the New National Recommendations
- Evaluating & Treating Infertility in the Primary Care Setting
- All That is Thin is Not Osteoporosis
- Treatment of Chronic Insomnia
- Initial Approach to Outpatient Cardiac Problems: The Old & The New
- Travel Medicine Update 2006
- Screening for Lung Cancer; Pros & Cons

August 12, 2006
- Evaluation of Acute Vaginal Bleeding
- Attention Deficit Disorder; A Primary Care Approach
- When to Take the Keys Away
- Ophthalmology for the Non-Ophthalmologist
- The Role of Aspirin in Cardiac Prevention in Women
- Prebiotics, Probiotics & Symbiotics: Are Bugs Good Drugs?
- Pediatric Orthopedics for the Primary Care Provider
- Newer Drugs of Abuse

REGISTRATION: Fee is $80 for physicians active in practice, which includes continental breakfasts, refreshment breaks, and a course syllabus. A special registration fee of $60 is available for residents, retired physicians, and allied health colleagues. For registration information, please call the Mayo School of CME at (480) 301-4580 and ask to be placed on our mailing list. The brochure is available on our website at http://www.mayo.edu/cme/courses.htm.

You may obtain a course brochure denoting the schedule and registration information via:
- Internet: http://www.mayo.edu/cme/
- E-mail: mcs.cme@mayo.edu
- Call Mayo School of CME: (480) 301-4580